Welsh Language Standard – Logos for Email signatures

Standard no. 142 requires the University to provide its employees with a wording or logo to be included in email signatures to denote staff who are fluent Welsh speakers and those who are learning Welsh.

You may use one of the logos below for your email signature. Instructions on how to include a logo in your email signature can be found on Information Services' website (FAQ nos. 2628 & 2629)
