Y Grŵp Gwasanaethau Cymdeithasol The Social Services Group

The Social Services Group of the U.C.W. Women's Club recently held its annual coffee party at Plas Penglais by kind permission of Lady Valerie Daniel. There was a cake and produce stall and Lady Daniel drew tickets for the raffle prizes. The Group thanks the Mayor and all who attended and contributed. The money will help to pay for a caravan holiday for children in the care of the local authority.

The Christmas activities of the social service group of the UCW Women's Club included a visit to the Geriatric Hospital when members and their families sang carols to the patients and the distribution of gifts to the residents of Bodlondeb and Deva and to the children in the care of the local authority.

TEN children accompanied by two Housemothers have recently spent a week in Aberystwyth Holiday Village, Penparcau. They were from Peterwell Childrens Home near Lampeter and the funds for this treat were provided by the U.C.W. College Womens Club Social Service Group. Representatives of the Group called to see the children found them happily occupied on the trampolines, model speedboats etc. Their ages range from 7 to 18 and Mrs. Thomas, the Housemother in charge, was CHILDREN in Aberystwyth's hospital got an early Christmas present. The University women's club's social services group presented a sackful of toys to the Angharad Ward at Bronglais Hospital. Pictured are (from left) play leader Deirdre Raffan, seven-year-old Joan Williams from Blaenplwyf, social service group chairperson Morfydd Hughes, secretary Peggy Jones and Eleri Davies, aged four.

Concert for Aged.—Residents at the Avondale and the Deva were very appreciative of concerts performed in the two Homes by members of the U.C.W. The concerts were arranged by the Social Service Group of the College Women's Club. The performance was given by the College Women's Club Choir (conducted by Mrs. Gerallt Jones); the Scottish Country Dancing Society led by Mr. Gormley; solo dances were performed by Mr. Dennis Owen and Miss May Soon; from Irag; Mrs. David Evans contributed a delightful talk entitled "Grannies"; and readings were given by Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Piette. Thanks were expressed by Mr. Davies and Miss Jennings for the Deva and Mr. Roberts and Mr. Davies at the Avondale.

Outing.—Residents from the Deva and Bronglais were entertained to tea last Monday at the Athlone Cafe, Borth, by members of the College Women's Club. The afternoon's outing was arranged by the Social Service Group of the College Women's Club. For the first time for many years the afternoon was fine and warm and it was possible to enjoy the Borth breezes and view the sea defences. The warm welcome and delicious tea all helped to make an enjoyable afternoon.

Some of the numerous reports on the work of the Group that appeared in the Cambrian News over the years.

Members of the U.C.W. Womens Club Social Service Group, served a home-made tea to patients of the Geriatric Unit, North-road, on Tuesday week by kind permission of the Matron. The patients enjoyed the treat and asked "Whose birthday is it?" We were rewarded by their obvious enjoyment.

At the annual meeting of the U.C.W. College Womens Club Social Services Group held on Tuesday week the activities of the preceding year were reviewed. A total of £332 was raised through various efforts including a jumble sale, a coffee morning, and a nearly new shop.

This money was spent on presents, a party and a pantomime visit for children from the childrens Homes of Ceredigion at Christmas; on Christmas presents for old people living in and around Aberystwyth; on a caravan holiday for twenty four children and housemothers from two childrens Homes during Spring Bank Holiday week; and on entertainments and outings for many local old people.

The Group is grateful for the support and help that has been received in all these efforts not only from members of college but from townspeople as well. The Chairman (Mrs. Gwen Gowen) said that this had been a most successful year.
