Thanks to funding from the Higher Education Funding Council for Wales (HEFCW), Lifelong Learning at Aberystwyth University is offering a fee waiver scheme to support students who would not otherwise have access to higher education.

Eligible students will study free of charge.

You may be eligible if you claim certain benefits or belong to a group which is considered under-represented in higher education.

Choose from the wide range of part-time courses, many of which are available to study online.
