

A Public Event and Conference
Aberystwyth University

150 years of the Welsh in Patagonia: Reflections on a Legacy

Main Hall, International Politics Building, Penglais Campus,
6 June, 2015, 9.15 am to 4.00pm

Come and join us at this public event where leading academics will reflect on the legacy of the Welsh in Patagonia. They will focus on three key themes:

- How have the Welsh shaped the society and landscape of Patagonia?
- How did the colony contribute to Welsh identity?
- What is the significance of the Welsh colony today?

For more information, contact...

- Dr Hywel Griffiths (Geography & Earth Sciences) 01970 622 674 hmg@aber.ac.uk
Website ('News Highlights') <http://www.aber.ac.uk/en/iges/about/news/>
- Dr Lucy Taylor (International Politics) 01970 622 701 lt@aber.ac.uk
Website ('Events') <http://www.aber.ac.uk/en/interpol/news-and-events/>

Exhibitions: National Library of Wales, Teithiau Tango, Planet: The Welsh Internationalist & Aberystwyth-Esquel Peoples in Partnership Association. With many thanks for their support.