

Professor Shugo Minagawa - Alumni Profile

Professor Shugo Minawaga is a Dean of the Graduate School of Global Culture and Communication and a full Professor of Comparative and International Politics at the Aichi Shukutoku University. He is also Professor Emeritus of Hokkaido University.

A successful academic, Professor Minawaga holds several degrees from Universities from across the globe including a Diploma in International Law and Relations and an MSc (Econ) in International Politics from Aberystwyth University.

He feels that Aberystwyth contributed greatly to his career development and provided a fantastic foundation for his professional development and comments:

“Aberystwyth is a very special place to study. The University provides a warm welcome to students from across the world and the small town, with friendly people, makes it a great place to study.

I chose to study International Politics at the University as it was, and still is, regarded as a leading department of its kind. I have very fond memories of my time at Aber and am proud to be one of its alumni.”
