

David Davies Memorial Institute of International Studies
Symposium on Climate Change

“Copenhagen and Climate Change: The Stakes; The Politics”

Main Hall, International Politics Building, Aberystwyth University

2:00 – 6:45 p.m., Friday 6 November 2009

Program

- 2:00 – 2:20 p.m.      Official Opening, Introduction, Greetings
Sir Emyr Jones-Parry

President of Aberystwyth University, and former Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom to the United Nations
- 2:20 – 3:20 p.m.      “Towards Copenhagen: The View from the South,” then Q & A
Dr. Peter Christoff

Visiting Researcher, Oxford Centre for the Environment, University of Oxford; and Coordinator of Environmental Studies, Department of Resource Management and Geography, Melbourne Graduate School of Land and Environment, University of Melbourne

- 3:20 – 4:20 p.m. “Towards Copenhagen: The View from the North,” then Q & A
Professor Robyn Eckersley
Visiting Research Fellow, Smith School of Enterprise and the Environment, University of Oxford; and Head of the Department of Political Science, University of Melbourne
- 4:20 – 4:40 p.m. Tea & Coffee Break
- 4:40 – 5:40 p.m. “The United States and Copenhagen,” then Q & A
E. H. Carr Professor Ian Clark
ESRC Professorial Fellow, Department of International Politics, Aberystwyth University
- 5:40 – 5:45 p.m. Rest Break
- 5:45 – 6:45 p.m. Roundtable: “Climate Change: Prospects for Agreement”
Sir John Houghton
Former co-chair, the Scientific Assessment Working Group, Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change
Dr. Marek Kohn
Fellow of the Centre for Applied Philosophy, Politics and Ethics, University of Brighton Chaired by
Professor Nicholas J. Wheeler
Professor, Department of International Politics, Aberystwyth University

The David Davies Memorial Institute of International Studies is part of the Department of International Politics, Aberystwyth University.

PRIFYSGOL
ABERYSTWYTH
UNIVERSITY

The DDMI symposium has been made possible in part because of the generous funding provided by the Gwendoline and Margaret Davies Charity, Commercialisation and Consultancy Services at Aberystwyth University, and the ESRC.