

2005 GREGYNOG CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

'Intelligence, Crises and Diplomacy: Lessons from History?'

Date	Time	Event
Saturday 7 May 2005	15:30	Arrival and tea
	17:00	Christopher Andrew: 'Learning from Intelligence history: lessons for the 21 st century'
	18:30	Reception: Sponsored by Jane's Information Group
	19:30	Conference dinner
Sunday 8 May 2005	07:30-	Breakfast
	09:15	Martin Thomas: 'Crisis management in colonial states: intelligence and counter-insurgency in Morocco and Syria after the First World War' Clive Jones: 'From covert diplomacy to covert action: Britain and the Yemen Civil war'
	10:45	Coffee
	11:15	Philip Bobbitt: 'Intelligence tradecraft and world order'

	13:00	Lunch
	14:00	Cees Wiebes: 'Counter-terrorism in Holland: radical fundamentalists and the present threat'. Alfred Rolington: 'Intelligence since Iraq: overload in an open-source world'
	15:30	Tea
	16:30	CIISS meeting
	18:30	Reception: Sponsored by the Department of International Politics, UWA
	19:30	Dinner
Monday 9 May 2005	07:30-	Breakfast
	09:15	Stephen Dorril: 'MI6 and Gladio' Neville Wylie: 'Intelligence and neutrality: the case of Switzerland'
	10:45	Coffee
	11:10	Yigal Sheffy: 'Egyptian deception in the 1973 war'
	12:30	Lunch

	13:30	John Ferris: 'Signals and signaling during strategic crises: the British experience during the Chanak (1922) and Munich (1938) crises' Peter Jackson: 'French perceptions of Soviet capabilities and intentions during the Czechoslovak crisis, 1938' Paul Maddrell: 'The Western secret services, the East German Ministry of State Security and the building of the Berlin Wall'
	15:00	Tea
	15:30-17:00	PhD session: Robyn Hall: 'Security, strategy and SIGINT: Ultra and the defence of Crete, 1941' Pia Molander: 'Allies under surveillance: Swedish counter-espionage and national security, 1942-45' Jake Widen: 'The Wennerstrom spy case: an international perspective'