

METHODOLOGICAL CHALLENGES IN INTELLIGENCE STUDIES

FRIDAY, 29th OCTOBER

Time	Event	Paper & Speaker
16.00 - 17.00	Arrival and Tea
17.00	Opening Remarks and Welcome: Professor Len Scott
17.15 - 18.30	PANEL 1 HISTORICAL METHODS Chaired by Prof. Richard J. Aldrich	Dr Michael Goodman (Kings College, London) 'Writing Official History' Dr Paul Maddrell (Aberystwyth) 'Significance of the Stasi-Unterlagen-Gesetz (Law on the Stasi Records) of 1991 for the Study of Intelligence' Dr Peter Jackson (Aberystwyth) 'The politics of security services' archives in France'

SATURDAY, 30th OCTOBER

Time	Event	Paper & Speaker
09.15 - 10.45	PANEL 2 SOCIAL SCIENCE METHODS Chaired by Dr. Peter Jackson	Prof. Ian Leigh (Durham) 'The engagement of intelligence studies with law and ethics' Mr Ross Bellaby (Aberystwyth) 'The Devil is in the Definition: Making a Working Definition for Intelligence Collection and the Social Sciences'
10.30 - 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 - 12.30	PANEL 3 SPY FILMS and LITERATURE Chaired by Dr. Paul Maddrell	Mr Simon Willmetts (Warwick) 'Spy Film and Spy Fiction' Dr Christopher Moran (Warwick) 'Remembering Espionage: The Spy Memoirs as Historical Source Material' Prof. Richard J. Aldrich (Warwick) 'Intelligence Journalism'
12.30 - 13.30	Lunch break
13.30 - 15.00	PANEL 4 TEACHING INTELLIGENCE Chaired by Prof. Len Scott	Dr Michael Goodman (Kings College, London) 'Training intelligence analysts within the government' Dr Philip H.J. Davies (Brunel) 'The use of software-based structured intelligence' Ms Claire Smith (former JIC) 'Intelligence Studies and training: a practitioner's point of view'
15.00	Concluding Remarks	