

Global Development Research Group

Calendar of Events - 2014-2015 Semester II

- February 6, 3:30pm - Marx and Foucault reading group: this reading group meeting will deal with different approaches to studying development. Namely, it will discuss the desirability and possibility of combining Marxian and Foucauldian insights in studying global development. Venue: Meetings Room, International Politics Building
- March 3, 3:30pm - Fieldwork Roundtable: the goal of this departmental roundtable is to provide a platform for students who are experienced and those who are preparing for fieldwork to share experiences and tips. The roundtable will include several experienced PhD students who will focus on different issues connected to fieldwork. Venue: South Room, International Politics Building
- March 16, 6pm - talk by Milja Kurki on her latest book project: 'International Relations in a cosmological context.' Venue: Steve Crichton Room, International Politics Building
- April 22, 5:30pm - talk by Mustapha Kamal Pasha: Details TBC. Venue: Main Hall, International Politics Building

Please email the group conveners with any questions:

Katja Daniels ksd2@aber.ac.uk

Kate Kaczmarek kak25@aber.ac.uk

Katarina Kušić kak12@aber.ac.uk

Desirée Poets dep9@aber.ac.uk

Melissa Mavis hkm@aber.ac.uk

Find the GDRG on Twitter: @AberGDRG