

NFU MUTUAL CHARITABLE TRUST CENTENARY AWARD 2024

Are you planning to start a postgraduate course in agriculture during the 2024/2025 academic year?

If so, then the NFU Mutual Charitable Trust Centenary Award could be just the thing for you.

The award provides bursaries for up to 75%* of course fees for successful students.

To request further information please contact centenary_award@nfumutual.co.uk. The closing date for applications is 30th June 2024.

Megan Phillips,
Centenary Award recipient 2023

NFU Mutual
Charitable Trust

*75% will be paid except in cases where the student will also receive funding from other sources which will result in more than 100% of course fees being funded, or if 75% will breach the terms of the other funders. All such cases will be agreed individually.

The National Farmers Union Mutual Insurance Society Limited (No 111982). Registered in England. Registered office: Tiddington Road, Stratford-upon-Avon, Warwickshire CV37 7BJ. Authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority. A member of the Association of British Insurers.