

SOCIOLOGY

Time allowed: 1.5 hours (90 minutes)

Candidates should answer TWO questions

---

1. What is the role of religion in society? Discuss using different perspectives.
2. Discuss whether the education system reproduces or alleviates inequalities in society. Use examples related to EITHER gender OR race/ethnicity in your answer.
3. How does social change come about? Discuss using one example.
4. The concept of crime only exists as a form of social control. Discuss.
5. Using specific examples, discuss how sociological theory might help us understand the relationship between power and resistance.
6. Is sociology a science? Discuss using different perspectives on reality.
7. Which sociological theorist have you found to be most useful when studying Sociology at A level? Justify your choice.
8. 'Social media challenges normative representations'. Critically discuss this statement, using examples in relation to EITHER race/ethnicity OR class OR gender.
9. What are the key institutions and social structures that have helped to define the role of women in society? How have women sought to define and redefine these roles?
10. What are social structures and why are they important in Sociology? Use specific examples to support your argument.