Answer TWO questions.

You must support your answers with specific examples.

1. Discuss your understanding of one or more of the terms 'cult', 'mainstream' or 'reality' television programmes.
2. Discuss two contrasting films or TV dramas that have made an impact on you recently. In your opinion, what factors contributed to your enjoyment of them?
3. What are the advantages and disadvantages of the current growth in the accessibility and popularity of social media?
4. Referring to genre is essential when analysing film. Discuss.
5. Consider one or more documentary that you have viewed. Evaluate the methods used to create a powerful story.
6. Channel 4 has recently bought the rights to The Great British Bake off. How do you think its format might change, as it moves from the BBC to a commercial broadcaster? And what might the effect of this be on viewing figures and/or viewer demographic.
7. Discuss a film of your choice which has recently been remade for a contemporary audience. Compare and contrast the 'remake' with the original film.
