

TRAIN WITH US

Teach beyond boundaries for an all-through experience

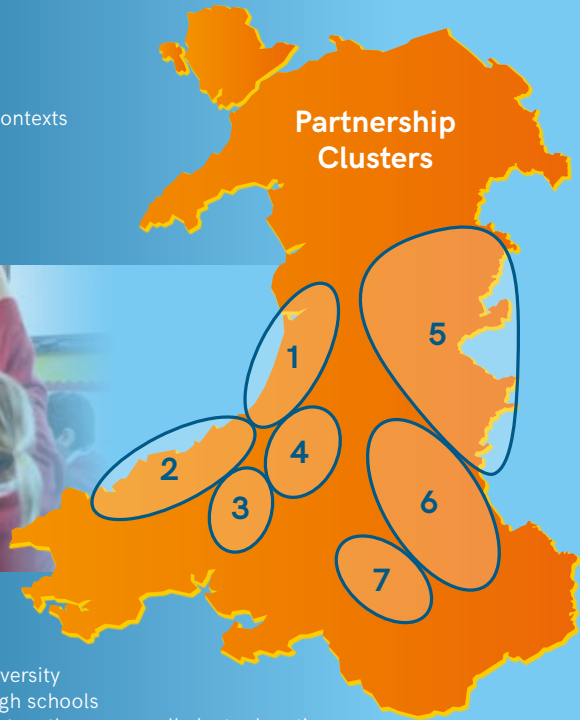

Trained to:

- Innovate and create
- Holistically educate in all school types and contexts
- Teach effectively across phases
- Flexibly embrace 'Our National Mission'
- Become continuous reflective practitioners
- Base your teaching on research

Trained by:

- An integrated partnership of schools and university
- Clusters of secondary, primary and all-through schools
- Excellent school and university staff working together across all cluster locations
- Supportive university tutors based in partner-school hubs
- Many Pioneer Schools

From September 2019, the University's School of Education will be delivering a new Postgraduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) offering two pathways to Qualified Teaching Status (QTS).

Student teachers can choose to follow either a Primary Post-Graduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) with Secondary Enrichment, or a Secondary PGCE with Primary Enrichment.